October

Month of the Holy Rosary

October is devoted to the Holy Rosary

The Pope tells us, “the mysteries of the Christian religion, “ “the mysteries of our Redemption,”,” “the great mysteries of Jesus and His Mother Mary united in joys, sorrows, and triumphs” The twenty mysteries are divided into four equal groups, known as “The Joyful; The Sorrowful; The glorious and “ The Luminous Mysteries.

The Rosary will be recited before each weekend Mass during October.

If you would like to lead the Rosary, there is a sign-up sheet at the back of the Church.

If you like to lead the Rosary please sign your name on the sheet giving the date and time you will volunteer for.

Fr. George wishes to thank you all for answering his Call for help in our difficult moment in the parish.

May God bless you both those who donated and those who are willing to donate but did not make it.

“Thanks; Thanks; Thanks”
